Spring Supplement
York College of Pennsylvania*

Spring is . . .

... a long walk to York Hall that seems longer as May approaches ... excitement during formal night ... last minute study for exams ... new construction ... a question that just could not be on a final—but was ... grades ... a hot cap and gown.

Roman Holiday

The 1969 spring semester was highlighted on May third by the annual Spring Formal. Sponsored and supervised by the Student Senate, "Roman Holiday" was an enjoyable evening not only for the students but also for their administration and faculty guests as well. During the evening Carol James, escorted by Jeff Dietz, was crowned queen while Claudia Bouis, Ruth German, Karen Knock and Renita Onorato were named to her court. Amid the atmosphere created by stately columns and beautiful statues, Al Morrison and his Orchestra and the Intentions provided the dance music.

Bill Walker congratulates Julie Kirchner for the fine job she did in organizing the spring formal.

Daria Hart was presented the HORIZON Award as the most outstanding member of the yearbook staff.

Long fingernails and cold hands highlighted Dick Szymanski's address to the award winners.

The Honor Scoop was accepted for Lambda Sigma Chi by Jane Recht.

George Harris won the Klinedinst award as the best student-athlete of the year.

Chi Gamma Iota will keep the perpetual trophy until a new Ugliest Person on Campus is elected next year.

UGLY CONTEST

Just before spring vacation, the Student Senate sponsored an ugly person contest. Four campus organizations entered their "ugliest" members and voting got underway. Votes were sold for one cent each or the bargain rate of ten for a dime and for several days the "uglies" wandered around campus and solicited votes. When the pennies were finally counted, Jim Hook of Chi Gamma Iota was named the Ugliest Person on Campus.

Mr. Ugly—Jim Hook

The new officers of WYCP, the campus radio station, plan to extend the services of the station for the 1969-70 year by moving the studio to the Student Center and purchasing new equipment.

Harry Eberly presented Bill Walker the gavel he used during his tenure as Student Senate President.

Baseball

A sacrifice bunt by Bob Smith drove a run home.

"Tag him; don't tackle him."

Jim Irwin hurls home a strike in a losing effort against George Mason College.
